The terrace

Built over three floors, accessible via the winding oak staircase or the lift, the penthouse floor boasts a large south-facing terrace, complete with dining table for long dinners with friends and family as the sun sets over Dalt Vila and a ping pong table.

A wide-angle photograph of a coastal town at sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a warm orange and yellow light across the sky and water. In the background, a hill is topped with a large, dark silhouette of a fortress or castle. The town below is a dense cluster of buildings, mostly in silhouette, with some lights beginning to glow. The foreground shows the dark silhouettes of trees and a few buildings, suggesting the viewer is looking down from an elevated position. The overall mood is peaceful and picturesque.
